Notice of Student Revaluation 2017-2018

Student's Name: _____ CAMS ID: A _____
(Please print) Last First

Please do not make any further changes to your FAFSA application. Any changes at this point will delay processing of all paperwork

The Office of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships may exercise professional judgment to re-evaluate a student's financial information for certain extenuating circumstances. Check the appropriate item(s) that apply to your circumstances and follow the corresponding instructions.

You the parent, or your spouse, may be eligible for this re-evaluation if you have experienced one of the following (please mark all that apply):

- Loss or Reduction of Income – you may qualify for this adjustment if your household income has decreased significantly from your household's 2016 income.

Complete the attached Estimated Income Form

Attach a signed personal statement detailing your circumstances

Attach all documentation that may be applicable to your situation

i.e. Letter of termination from employer, Letter of Resignation to the employer, final pay stub showing year-to-date income, legal statement of change in child support amount, statement of reduction in social security benefits.

If you are receiving, or have received, Unemployment benefits, you must submit an Unemployment benefit statement for all periods that benefits have been paid

- Change of Marital Status – you may qualify for this adjustment if you have married, divorced, separated, or your spouse passes away since you completed your FAFSA application.

Complete the attached Change of Marital Status Form

Attach a signed personal statement detailing your circumstances

Attach documentation that may be applicable to your situation

i.e. marriage certificate, death certificate, statement of divorce

If you have married since completing your FAFSA, attach your spouse's 2016 IRS tax return transcript

Before this request for reevaluation can be processed, the information on your student's current financial aid application must be verified. If you have not already completed the verification process please contact the Office of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships so that we can post the required documents to your student's account. These documents will include a 2016 IRS tax return transcript for you and your student (if filed) and both Parent and Student Verification Worksheets.

Estimated Income Form
